

Beth Williamson

Beth Williamson joined moss+ross in 2011 after many years as a professional and volunteer fundraiser. Drawing on her deep knowledge of the Raleigh community, Beth has played an important role as a member of the moss+ross team working with the North Carolina Autism Society and the YMCA of the Triangle.

Beth began her career as a consultant with Capital Development, where she worked with the Meredith College capital campaign. She later worked in banking with Bank of America (formerly NationsBank) and CCB.

She has served as a key volunteer leader with the North Carolina Museum of History Associates, the Joel Lane House, and the Red Sword Guild. She has also been involved as a volunteer with fundraising for Ravenscroft, the Raleigh Junior League, the UNC Alumni Association, Urban Ministries, the Carolina Ballet, St. Saviors, and Broughton High School.

Beth graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1990 with a bachelor of arts in political science. She lives in Raleigh with her husband, Julian, and their three daughters: Pell (11), Blanch (8), and Elizabeth (5).
